Soloa Chase may be able to manage a pair of steers, but as a statesman his days are numbered.

Blaine and his son Walter, should now go to Ohio and put a little certainty in the Republican campaign there.

The Kansas fusionist can hardly take courage when things have been so much upset in Maine. There is always something happening to give the Democrats a political night-mare.

Every Republican in Wisconsin this fall should appoint himself a rallying committee to see that the voters are got out and the right ticket voted. That is the way Maine won such a sweeping victory.

Public attention will naturally be attracted to the son of the late Van Hille, who cast the prize of the United States Senator behind him. When a young man will refuse such a gift, there is much hope for him.

Every honest man in Dane county, whether he be a Republican or Democrat, should hold no fellowship with a traitor like Stickney. Such treachery should not be looked upon with the least degree of allowance by either party.

James Tracy was hanged in Chicago this afternoon for the murder of Officer Haebner, on the 2d of February last. He was a hardened criminal, and even while standing on the trap door of the gallows he had the unblinking audacity to protest his innocence.

Only a few days ago a man died at Nottingham in abject poverty, in a degrading and low lodging house. In a day or two after his death it came to the knowledge of the authorities that he had been advertised for to receive a bequest of $10,000 and a yearly income of $1,500. A reversal of fortune had brought him to starvation.

The Monroe Republican Convention is session, and at the hour of going to press there are appearances that there will be a determined struggle between the friends of Keyes and Hazelton. There are all sorts of rumors as to what will be the course of the two candidates in case one or the other is nominated. Had it not been for the foul treachery of that man Stickney, Mr. Keyes would probably have received the nomination by this time.

The officers of the State Agricultural Society were elected at Fond du Lac yesterday for the ensuing year. The Hon. Nicholas D. Pratt was renominated President, and General George E. Bryant declining a reelection as Secretary, Mr. Clinton Babbert, of Deloit, received the election by a very large majority. Our esteemed townsman, Mr. Cyrus Muer, was unanimously reelected Treasurer. He wished to decline, but the members would not take "no" for an answer, and he finally accepted.

The deadlock at the West Bond Convention has at last been broken, and it will be a surprise to everybody, even to the candidate himself, to learn that Mr. D. H. Sumner, of Waukesha, was nominated for Congress. The Convention got tired out voting 14 to 14, and lost all hope of nominating either Bragg or Delaney, and after one of the longest struggles of the kind ever known in the United States, the delegates broke in despair, and Mr. Sumner was nominated by a vote of 16 to 12. The Democracy should not have done this foolish thing. Mr. Sumner is a worthy young man but he can never fill General Bragg's place nor make even a creditable Congressman. But the convention was worried out of its wits, and no better result could hardly have been expected.

The chief aim of the Prohibitionists is to submit the prohibitory amendment to the people. At least they claim that this is the great point aimed at. But it will strike thinking men very forcibly that this is not so much sought after as the formation of a new party—a party that will hold something like the balance of honor, if nothing else. If this is the end and aim of the Prohibitionists, they will certainly fail to make their new party any considerable factor in our political system. That the opinion that the prohibitory amendment should be submitted is on the increase, there is in question, but that the Prohibitionists are at all times sincere and consistent is very generally doubted. When they will try to defeat a man like Dr. Lord they show that they are after a little more than merely a submission of the amendment. Two years ago he voted for the proposed amendment, and the position he held then he holds now; and beside that, the recent convention which gave him a nomination, adopted a resolution in favor of a submission of the question. Mr. Lawrence could do no more than Dr. Lord has done or will do if he were elected, and then why do the Prohibitionists aim to defeat the Republican nominee? The motives that prompt the conservative temperance party has taken, look a little suspicious at the very best. If they will thoughtfully consider this question and reason with the experience of the past, they will find that the end they seek can be more quickly and easily attained by voting with the Republicans than by trying to elect Democrats. A spirit of candor will compel every sober minded man a careful observer to look at the question in this light.

THE STATE FAIR.

Twenty Thousand People Listen to Addresses from the Governor and Ex-Governor.

The Republican-Sentinel of to-day contains the following special from Fond du Lac:

FOND DU LAC, Sept. 14.—To-day is the great day of the fair, and a gala day for Fond du Lac. There were at least 20,000 people on the fair grounds, and up-down people crowded the appearance. About 800 people arrived on the first train this morning, and more than that from the south. Seven of these trains, well loaded with people, have arrived during the day. About 10 a. m. the Fond du Lac Girards lead by Captain L. S. Brasted, marched through the streets, followed by Appleton and Ripon companies. Following these were some fifty bands and carriages containing the State officials and prominent men of the State and city. Two brass bands accompanied the procession. Fond du Lac can well be proud of its company. The boys in blue from Appleton under the command of Captain Harry Sloan, looked superb and marched like veterans. The Ripon Company brought up the rear, but are capable of taking the front anywhere, and in looks and appearance were not behind the others.

Senator Sawyer, of Oshkosh, is here, and has received many a hearty shake of the hand. Governor Rusk, Attorney General, Secretary Thayer, State Treasurer McElroy and ex-Governor James are also present.

About 20,000 people assembled on the grounds this afternoon to witness the races and other attractions. It was utterly impossible for those who came to see the exhibits, or to get more than a mere glance at things. Governor Rusk's mammoth form was easily recognized, and the people were as eager to get a glimpse of his face, and in fact, more so than any other, baring a very obnoxious odor which the entire outfit carries with it, resembling that emitted by dried herring in our grocery stores, other "features" of the day. A perfect cloud of dust hovered over the track, but the vast throng of people were paid no heed to that, and either enjoyed it as they can with the expectations of taking in everything.

In accordance with a proclamation issued by the Mayor of Fond du Lac most of the business places closed their doors and gave their workmen a holiday.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the Governor and State officers reviewed the military in attendance and presided favorably upon the manner and spirit of the regiment. Following this the Governor was introduced to the audience by President Pratt, and made a pleasing and heartily applauded address.

To begin by alluding to the prosperous condition of the country, saying prosperity reigns in the farm houses of Wisconsin, and when prosperity visits farm houses it is no longer a visitor, it is a permanent resident. The carrier by land and by sea; indeed every department of industry and commerce.

Agriculture, he continued, is the foundation of the business and prosperity of the whole country. The daily published telegram from the money center of the world, is an unceasing daily tribute to agriculture and the farmer as the prime factor in commerce. With the growth of the country, increased prosperity, and the multiplied and splendid educational facilities, our colleges, universities and other institutions of learning are filling up with ambitious farmer boys, vigorous in body and in mind, but acquiring knowledge. They make good students and scholars, but the State loses too many of them, rather disdainfully turn from farm life to the professions as being a step higher. He would like to impress upon such young men that they are mistaken in this. There is in a true sense no "step higher" from the cultivated, thoughtful, healthful, independent life of the intelligent farmer.

The Governor concluded his speech with an eloquent appeal to the farmers' boys, to realize and remember the glory of the vocation of husbandry. Following the Governor, ex-Gov. Smith was led to the front and addressed the vast assemblage. Among other things he said that all the State fairs have attended to in the past eight or ten years he had never seen so large and respectable an audience on its grounds at one time. He spoke of the great industries of our State, and said that he had traveled through nearly all the States of our Union, and was prepared to say that the great State of Wisconsin was not behind any of them. He was received with great applause, after which there would call from the multitude for Senator Sawyer, in response to which the venerable gentleman stepped forward and bowed, and he would not detain the audience by a speech, as he preferred to see the races.

Unworthy Influence.

Many persons are prejudiced against proprietary medicines. They do not know why. Many narrow-minded doctors condemn them without knowing or caring to know in the least about them. These are mostly young and inexperienced in practice. "Prejudice is strong where the judgment is weak." Many physicians, with better and more liberal ideas and education, endorse those remedies which they find most efficacious for the diseases for which they are recommended. One of these is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and coming into popular use, for the Liver and Dyspepsia, is ZEPHYRUS, 8 oz. bottles 75c, 6 oz. 50c. Sold by Prentiss & Evenson.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR—FEARS FOR HIS SAFETY. CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 15.—President Arthur's vessel has not been heard from since her departure from Portland, Me., at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, ostensibly for New York. An easterly storm prevailed on the coast yesterday and was still in progress last night, and it is supposed that the Despatch has sought the harbor of some Massachusetts harbor. Diligent inquiry by telegraph, mail, and otherwise, has been made, but it is not probable that she is in Vineyard Haven, with which point there is no telegraphic communication. No alarm is felt.

FOURTEEN PERSONS DROWNED. CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 15.—A heavy easterly wind and rain storm prevailed on the coast yesterday afternoon, blowing the duck-yacht steamer Ranger, and accompanied by E. S. Evans, for the Prince Edward Island, where a large number of war, supposed to be the Phoenix, which left Quebec with the flag-ship, is reported for the westward for about.

On the afternoon the two ships sailed a heavy gale came on and the Northampton lost sight of the Phoenix and heard nothing more of her until arriving here, where a telegram was found stating that the sea is making a clean break over the ship.

THE TORNADO.

MEXICO, N. Y., Sept. 15.—A heavy wind and rain storm prevailed on the coast yesterday evening. Three hundred people were at the fair grounds at the time. The liberty pole was blown down, killing one horse and seriously injuring several people. The horses ran away, and the women and children were panic-stricken. The corpse of the man killed was blown down. Thomas De Long, of Mexico, and Fred M. White, of Richford, were seriously hurt. Minnie's horse was killed. Much damage was done to fruit and crops.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Lightning last night did considerable damage in the city and neighborhood. The Baptist church in North Parma was badly wrecked. Fourteen telegraph poles just north of the city were shattered by lightning.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 15.—A terrific hurricane passed over the village of Windham last evening, destroying houses and other buildings in the northeastern portion of the village. No lives were lost. Several persons were injured—Mrs. Daniel Maxwell, Mr. Thomas Ash, and Miss Mary Connolly seriously.

About twenty persons were injured, but no one was killed. Miss Mary Connolly is in a critical condition, and is supposed to be injured internally. These injured, most of them slightly, are:

- A sister of Mrs. Clifford Barnes.
- Mrs. Dan Maxwell.
- Rosa Connolly.
- Mrs. A. G. Beach and young child.
- Mrs. Annie Thompson.
- Mrs. Thomas Ash, and Mary, Bridget and Katie Ash.
- Timothy and John Twiney.
- Mrs. Julia Dunn and five children.
- Mary Edwight and Mrs. Edward Connolly.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

Further Attempts at Murder—A National Movement to be Inaugurated.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Attempt has been made to murder two farmers who purchased hay from the holding of an evicted tenant. It is announced that Daniel Davitt, Dillon, and Brennan have decided to hold a conference in autumn in order to inaugurate a national movement in which the various movements will be consolidated. The abolition of landlordism, promotion of home industries, rights of laborers, and paid representation in parliament. It is proposed that the Irish people should join the Landmark movement being accepted, a gathering of boycotted owners have received letters in which they are told that they will be killed. One of the letters, of St. Patrick's cathedral full today, killing four women. They were completely decapitated.

She Repeated at Leisure.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 15.—Six months ago two of Huntsville's society belles, while going to a concert with their beaux, thought it would be a fine trick to run off and get married, and soon they were speeding on the train to this city, and were married here by an Episcopal minister. Their escape came in the nick of time. Huntsville society in the bride, named Davis, fell ill, and her husband removed her to Eliza Springs. She regained her health, but her mind seemed unsettled. Two weeks ago they had a quarrel, and she refused to have anything more to do with him. Her husband followed. Soon the report of a pistol was heard, and he was found shot through the bowels and fatally wounded by his wife. She is the daughter of Col. Morrill, one of the most prominent men in the vicinity of Huntsville.

The Star-Renters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—At the department of justice all information relative to the war-rent case is refused. It is said that Henry A. Brown and Brewster Cameron will be here in a week or two, and that the bribery cases will not be taken up until they return. The department is expected to have some news to look after the trial of the convicted.

Sitting Up Nights.

Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Greek Center, N. Y., writes she has been troubled with asthma for four years. Had to sit up night after night with it, and was ultimately cured by two bottles of "Thomas' Electric Oil."

THE FIELD OF HONOR.

The Tombstone Editors Couldn't Agree Upon the Weapons to Be Used in Their Proposed Duel. Whereupon Negotiations Were Abruptly Terminated.

Tombstone, Ariz., Sept. 15.—A correspondent who accompanied the duelists to Sonora sends the following account: The hostile parties who left Tombstone last night to seek satisfaction on the field of honor, rendezvoused at an early hour at Harford. The party consisted of the principal and seven men, the second, and a surgeon. They arrived at the place of rendezvous at 3 a. m., and found the Hamilton party, consisting of the principal, second, and surgeon, had arrived about one hour previous. The party camped and slept for a few hours. The Hamilton party was aroused at daylight, and just as sunrise started for the boundary line. The hostile party, under the leadership of their second, followed about half an hour later. The road was kept for a distance of about four miles south of Tombstone, and the second party was selected for the deadly encounter. When the second party arrived they found the Hamilton party already on the ground, eagerly awaiting the onset. The second party was armed with a revolver, a dagger, and a knife. The Hamilton party was armed with a revolver, a dagger, and a knife. The second party was armed with a revolver, a dagger, and a knife. The Hamilton party was armed with a revolver, a dagger, and a knife.

Various other weapons were offered by the Hamilton party, giving as a reason that they were new and worked so hard that their principal would be placed at a disadvantage. The second party refused to accept of the weapons, and the Hamilton party was forced to use their own. The second party was armed with a revolver, a dagger, and a knife. Nebraska Democrats.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 15.—The Democratic state convention was held here yesterday. Geo. M. Montgomery, of Lincoln, being elected president, and D. W. Smalls, of Fremont, secretary. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the abolition of all protective tariff taxes, denouncing the reckless squandering of money in the recent river and harbor bill, state-rotten fraudulent contracts, and the various other evils which are the result of the present administration. The convention adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Several Persons Injured in a Freight Train Accident.

HARTFORD, Pa., Sept. 15.—While a freight train was passing below Mr. Carlson's farm a heavy piece of timber from a car struck the smoking car of the 4:30 express from Baltimore, causing the train to stop. Four persons were killed. William Snyder, of Philadelphia, was wedged between a car and the side of the car and could not be released until the timber was cut in two. His injuries will probably prove fatal. Walter Van der Burgh, of Philadelphia, was killed by a falling car. The other two persons killed were William Snyder, of Philadelphia, and Walter Van der Burgh, of Philadelphia.

Congressional Nominations.

Among the congressional nominations yesterday were those of Ben Bristow to his own successor in the First Ohio district; Omar Smith, to succeed John L. Young in the Second Ohio district; and John L. Young, to succeed Omar Smith in the Second Ohio district. Frank H. Haskett, to be his own successor in the Twenty-fifth New York district; and John L. Young, to be his own successor in the Twenty-fifth New York district.

The "Princess Pearl."

New York, Sept. 15.—Gilbert & Sullivan's forthcoming opera has been named "The Princess Pearl." The hero is a fisherman, the son of a fisherman and of a fishwife who is only a fishwife from the waist down. The characters and plot mix farces and romances. The opera is a farce, and the plot is a farce. The opera is a farce, and the plot is a farce.

The Boston Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—The $10,000 race between seven horses of the 2:17 class, attracted 15,000 persons. Edward Thorne won in three straight heats, his time being 2:19, 2:19 and 2:18 1/2. Clingstone got second money, Eudora third, and Santa Claus fourth. Thorne was awarded $5,000.

The Tariff Commission.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 15.—The national tariff commission sits here to-day. At a meeting of the board of trade last evening, committees were appointed to prepare subjects to be presented to the commission.

The Oriole Festival.

DARTMOUTH, Sept. 15.—The oriole festival closed last night with a grand spectacular procession, which was witnessed by many thousands. The streets were brilliantly illuminated and handsomely decorated.

The British Team Wins.

New York, Sept. 15.—In the international rifle contest at Creedmoor, Long Island, the British team won the 200-yard match by 251 to 242; the 300-yard match by 373 to 393, and the 600-yard match by 347 to 323.

Christianity in Girard College.

New York, Sept. 15.—The death of President Allen, of Girard college, Philadelphia, has called public attention to the provisions made in the will of Stephen Girard against Christianity being taught in the institution which he munificently founded. During Mr. Allen's illness neither his pastor nor any other Christian minister could visit him, and none could go within the college walls to take part in the funeral services. But the exclusion of ministers does not seem to have accomplished what Girard intended. The Sunday School Times says: "President Allen had himself done the work of a clergyman in that college while living, and at his funeral Christian services were there held by Christian laymen. After this his remains were taken into a neighboring church, where Christian liberty gave free air; and there a score or more of prominent Christian clergymen united with a large assembly in paying another tribute of respect to the life and work of this distinguished Christian layman." The Girard heirs and the trustees of the fund are said to be a misfit to the propriety of teaching Christianity in the college, while technically obeying the will by excluding clergymen.

"SONS OF COLUMBIA."

An Organization which Proposes to Put Steamboat Fares on a Nominal Basis.

New York, Sept. 15.—A new steamboat line called the Columbia line, has begun running boats on the Hudson river, between New York and Poughkeepsie, with a uniform passenger fare of 10 cents, whether for the whole distance or any intermediate town, and a freight rate of $1 a ton. The line is owned by the secret order known as the Sons of Columbia, and is under the direct management of Walter H. Slump. At present the steamer Americana makes the trip to Poughkeepsie, leaving Pier No. 57 North river, at the foot of West 57th street, at 3 p. m., and leaving Poughkeepsie on the return trip 5:30 a. m. The propeller International, also makes a daily trip with freight, leaving the New York pier a 1 p. m. It is designed by the management to add two much larger boats to the line, which will make the trip daily between New York and Albany, with the same passenger and freight rates as are now established between New York and Poughkeepsie.

A reporter visited Pier No. 27 shortly before the departure of the Americana, and ascertained the number of passengers were on board, and there was a quantity of freight. A long rail steamer at the bow of the boat bore the name "Columbia Line," and another at the stern had the words "Anti-Monopoly." Mr. Slump explained the plans of the Columbia association. No one making a round trip between New York and Albany is to be charged more than $1.00 for the trip, and are bound to win. At the fare of ten cents a passenger between New York and Albany we propose to show that money can be made, and look at this line. It will carry 1,500 passengers and considerably over 250 tons of freight easily, and should we have all the passengers and freight we could handle, they would bring us $1,800 a day for the trip each way. Then we receive one-fourth of the gross receipts from the bar and lunch counters of the boat, and that might average us some $200 more. But even if we received passengers and freight only to the extent of one-third of our capacity, we would still make a profit. We pay for the boat $100 a day, and for the trip $100 a day. We pay for the trip $100 a day, and for the trip $100 a day. We pay for the trip $100 a day, and for the trip $100 a day.

An Irish Patriot.

New York, Sept. 15.—A. M. Sullivan, the Irish orator, journalist and member of parliament, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived here on the Parthenia yesterday afternoon. He was met on board the steamer and welcomed to America by a party of gentlemen, comprising Dr. W. D. Wallace, of New York; Alexander Sullivan, of Chicago; John J. Hayes, of Boston; Hugh King, of New York; and others, who saw him through the custom-house and escorted him to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was called upon by a large party of distinguished Irishmen. Mr. Sullivan was here twenty-five years ago, when he was a student at the University of Dublin. He will visit before returning to Ireland in November. During his stay he will make addresses in all the principal cities in the state, visiting Chicago, in October. He will then return to New York, and will then return to New York, and will then return to New York.

French Suicides.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Some official statistics have just been issued of the suicides in France that have taken place in fifty years. They show that since 1850 the number of suicides has trebled. In 1850, 10; in 1860, 11; in 1870, 13; in 1880, 15. The total of suicides in the last year reached 6,650, of whom 70 per cent. were men. The Seine department stands at the head of the gloomy list, and Corsica has the smallest number of suicides—only two in 1890. A painful fact is the growing frequency of suicides among children. Between 1870 and 1890 180 boys and 10 girls below 15 years of age destroyed themselves. Of these 380 were over 12 years of age; 12 were between the ages of 12 and 10, 4 were 10 years old, and 6 were below 10. The youngest being only 7 years old. It appears that by far the greatest number of suicides take place in the summer, the proportions per cent. being: Summer, 39; spring, 19; autumn, 24; and winter, 18.

The End of a High-Toned Liaison.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Further details are given of the suicide of Miss Feigylina, a Russian actress of considerable note, in the apartments of the Duke de Nemours. Miss Feigylina and the duke had been on intimate terms for some time past, the former frequently visiting the apartments of the duke; and accompanying him to places of amusement and other resorts. It is said the duke had found the lady's letters, and had shown a disposition to avoid her as much as possible; but she would not be shaken off, and last evening, learning the duke was in his apartment, she hastened to him with a letter, indicating of demanding of him the recovery of his slandering her. A quarrel, it is believed, ensued which resulted in Miss Feigylina drawing a pistol and shooting herself.

The Coronation Postponed.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—At the council of ministers, held ten days ago, it was definitely decided that the emperor's coronation at Moscow should be postponed till next year. Official notification of this decision will be sent to the ambassadors accredited to Russia.

The Weather.

Fair weather, westerly backing to southerly winds predicted for this region to-day.

The Terrors of Cholera.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—It is not contagious, but cold does not kill it, and poverty, misery, fear, filth, rags and wretchedness of every sort are its victims. Those where it rages are in the midst of a contagion, without security. No vaccination slates it out, no quarantine stops it. We are sorely fortunate in being afflicted with milder diseases, in being spared such a terrible plague.
